Major Policy Win: USCIS Fee Rule

This rule reflects a crucial win for ASISTA and our partners, who fought hard to address the financial barriers facing survivors. By reducing these burdens, the rule opens doors to safety, security, and hope for immigrant survivors and demonstrates the power of collective advocacy for a more just system.

ASISTA Celebrates 15 Powerful Years

On Oct 18, 2023, we were honored to be joined by New York Times Bestselling Memoirist Javier Zamora & Award-Winning Journalist Amy Goodman from "Democracy Now!" to celebrate ASISTA's incredible legacy and to share our vision, as we continue the fight for survivors' safety and justice into the future.

Changing Lives

After suffering years of domestic violence, Rosa, a Honduran mother of three U.S. citizen children, was finally eligible to apply for her green card...until she was unjustly arrested. The officers failed to recognize her trauma response or to provide interpretation—leaving Rosa confused, frightened, and suddenly confronted with the agonizing possibility of being deported and separated from her young children. When Rosa's attorney reached out, ASISTA provided key legal arguments and strategizing support.

Rosa's green card was approved and she can now build a safe, secure future for herself and her children in the country they call home.
